EVERY THIRD MINUTE
A festival of theatre, dementia and hope
EVERY THIRD MINUTE

A festival of theatre, dementia and hope
Horse called freedom
West Yorkshire Playhouse gives voice to people living with dementia

Theatre group is staging productions written and devised by those with the condition

It is Friday morning at West Yorkshire Playhouse, a theatre in the north of England and the regional hosting venue for the 2018 fringe festival held in its week-long run.
Nicky Taylor

Whose narrative? People with dementia and creative co-production in theatre

Full Time study (2017 – 2020)

Supervisory team: Prof Claire Surr (Director of Studies), Dr Pamela Fisher & Dr Darren Hill (Supervisors)
EVERY THIRD MINUTE

A festival of theatre, dementia and hope
Contact:

Nicky Taylor
0113 213 7296
nicky.taylor@leedsplayhouse.org.uk

Twitter:  @_nickytaylor
        @LeedsPlayhouse
        #EveryThirdMinute